

Raising money for Velindre

Would you like to help us support Velindre Cancer Centre? Become a Megaday 2016 Official Sponsor

What is Megaday?

Megaday is an annual pop festival held in Caerphilly that raises money for the Velindre Cancer Centre. Megaday started in 1995 as a tribute to 2 local musicians, Andrew Nichols and Paul Grahame. It has so far almost £300k for its cause.

The 1000's who have attended Megaday before, will know that it's about raising as much money as possible for the Velindre Cancer Centre, whilst having a great time doing it. It's also a great opportunity for anyone who's ever been touched by cancer to come along and celebrate the lives of lost loved ones and help us make a huge difference at Velindre Cancer Centre.

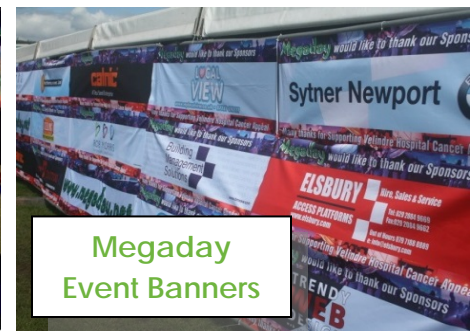

Megaday is a non profit making organisation run completely by volunteers. It is only made possible by the time, efforts and generosity of local people and businesses, we would love you to get involved. If you're interested in sponsoring this year's event, please do get in touch. Here are the sponsorship packages available and details of how to book them ☺
